The first system of the musical score consists of two staves. The upper staff is a vocal line in treble clef, and the lower staff is a piano accompaniment in bass clef. The key signature has two flats (B-flat major). The vocal line begins with a half note 'place.', followed by a series of eighth and quarter notes for 'And the peace of the Lord goes on and on, and the'. The piano accompaniment provides a harmonic foundation with chords and moving lines.
